

PERSONALIZED SPANISH

PROGRAMS COSTA RICA

ABOUT US

Personalized Spanish Programs is a 100% Costa Rican staffed school with friendly professionals experienced in the process of teaching and learning a second language.

Our instructors are native speakers of Spanish, who are certified to teach Spanish as a second language. They are experienced in working with students at all levels. Their passion, patience, capability, and professionalism earn great acclaim from their students. The program is highly customized to meet your individual needs. This includes profession-specific terminology and language use to ensure proper and effective communication in your area of expertise.

We are proud to have the highest percentage of returning students of all of the Spanish Language Schools in Costa Rica because student satisfaction is our primary goal.
